Vancouver to Seward Coastal Temperate Rainforest

When we think of Alaska, we think of snow and lots of it! However, there is a region of Alaska where the temperature ranges between 32 and 62 degrees Fahrenheit and rain dominates the forecast all year round. We will travel along the Pacific Ocean from Vancouver, B.C., Canada to Seward Alaska through the Coastal Temperate Rainforest

The Development of Imperialism/Colonialism

Using the background of the previous lectures, we now take a look at the expansion of empire and the development of the idea of colonizing new areas as well as the ideas that surround the treatment of those who live in colonial areas. From the ancient Mesopotamians and Egyptians to the Spanish/French/Dutch/Portuguese and English of the 15th Centuries and onward. How has this affected us today?
