

March 23, 2021

Dear Lions Gate Community Members,

The weather is changing and it is great to see so many of you outside enjoying the sun! We hope your preparations for Passover are going smoothly and we wish you all a Zissen Pesach!

DINING

We continue to develop the plan of opening the dining room. We anticipate the dining room to open in mid to late April after Passover. We will continue to provide details as the much anticipated reopening date arrives.

PROGRAMMING

We have been and will continue to increase the number of events held in Commons Hall. We will not be requiring individuals to make reservations in order to attend the daily events, however special occasions when seating is limited may require reservations. In addition to the in person events, we continue to provide various movies and exercise videos on our internal television station (Channel 1970).

This week we have the following in Commons Hall:

3/22 Real World Ethics with Sarah Rosenson
Current Events with Jeanette Axelrod

3/23 Best of Broadway with Leila Joffe

3/24 The Moors and Jews of Spain with Steve Pollack
A Glorious Time for Song with Herb Kaufman

3/25 Everything You Want to Know... with Barbara Anderson

3/26 Rabbi's Class with Rabbi Rayna Grossman

PRECAUTIONS

If you have an aide please remember to wear a mask at all times and insist that the aide (or visitor) wear a mask when inside your apartment.

We continue to be diligent with following infection control protocols and suggest social distancing and mask wearing. In addition, we continue to in-service staff on a regular basis on proper hand-washing techniques, proper mask wearing, and social distancing. On a daily basis, we sanitize and disinfect apartment doorbells, doorknobs, handrails, etc. throughout independent living.
